

Register Online

The workshop fee is $35, which includes lunch and materials. Register with two other friends for $89 total and save. Seating is limited to the first 40 participants. Register online today via credit card at:

www.christianfutures.com/transform.shtml

Questions about scholarships?

Contact, Regional VP, Rocky Mtn EMS,
David Diaso <ddiaso@earthlink.net>
(719) 213-4990

STAN NUSSBAUM

has a life motto: "Living at the Speed of Grace." He is the staff missiologist at GMI Research Services (Global Mapping International) in Colo. Springs, Chair of the Board of Publications of the American Society of Missiology, an Associate of the Missions Commission of WEA (World Evangelical Alliance), and an active member of the Rocky Mountain EMS chapter. Other interests/ministries include: African indigenous churches, traditional proverbs, in-service training for missionaries, AIDS, American culture, creative evangelism via story and festival, and theology of mission. His most recent publications are: Why Are Americans Like That? (Enculturation Books, June 2005) and American Cultural Baggage (Orbis Books 2005).

Transforming Mission will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 pm on December 16 at the Penrose House, 1661 Mesa Avenue, Colorado Springs, CO 80906. The location is 4 blocks behind the Broadmoor Hotel, just past Pauline Memorial Catholic School, on Mesa. Our host will be Bruce McCluggage, <bruce@christianfutures.com>.

Both Bosch's Transforming Mission and Nussbaum's Reader's Guide will be available at a 35% discount for participants during the workshop.

Transforming MISSION

a five-hour workshop for Christian leaders with
Dr. Stan Nussbaum

Dec. 16, 2005

9:00 am – 3:30 pm
at the Penrose House,
behind the Broadmoor,
Colorado Springs, Colo.

Sponsored by the Rocky Mtn.
Evangelical Missiological Society
<http://www.missiology.org/EMS/>

Toward a New Paradigm of Mission

David Bosch's Transforming Mission (1991) is acknowledged as the leading book in mission theory of the last two decades, yet inaccessible to most. Now Dr. Stan Nussbaum, a student of the late Bosch, has unlocked its treasures in A Reader's Guide to "Transforming Mission" (Orbis Books, 2005). Join the Rocky Mtn EMS for this hands-on workshop and discover how Bosch:

- ◆ Rescues Christian mission from 20th-century triumphalism.
- ◆ Revisions mission theology from the New Testament.
- ◆ Reorganizes the classical evangelical view into an emerging post-Enlightenment paradigm.

Dr. Nussbaum will reveal nine basic "insider" assumptions in mission gleaned from Bosch's 519-page book. You will gain expertise in how to take Bosch's huge concepts and reduce them to diagrams that can stimulate the thinking of your staff, field workers and friends.

Nussbaum—on Bosch:

Paradigm theory provides the best framework for studying transitions in mission from one era to the next.... The single greatest challenge in forming a post-Enlightenment paradigm in mission is to take ideas long considered to be opposites and hold them together in creative tension. (p. 5)